Register Online

To register online, a California driver's license or identification card number, last four digits of your social security number, and date of birth is needed.

More information can be found in this link.

Register In Person

Registration can be completed through your local department of motor vehicles office, a nearby armed forces recruitment center, or state and county public assistance offices such as SNAP/food stamps.

Register By Mail

To register by mail, a National Voter Registration form must be filled out and mailed to the state or local election office for processing. Ensure proper postage is used.

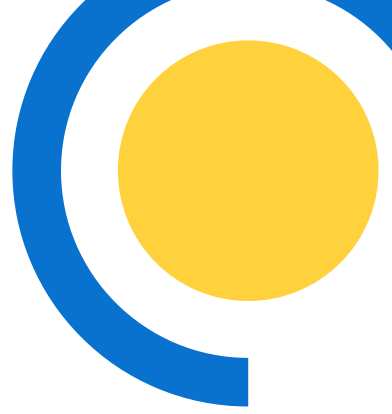

Special Circumstances

Every State requires voter registration EXCEPT North Dakota.

Voter registration must be updated in cases of name, address, or party affiliation changes.

US citizens living abroad can register to vote by requesting an absentee ballot by completing the Federal Post Card Application. See the Federal Voting Assistance Program for more information on military and overseas voting.

Vote in Person

For voting on election day, each voter may need to provide an ID. Each state has different ID requirements.

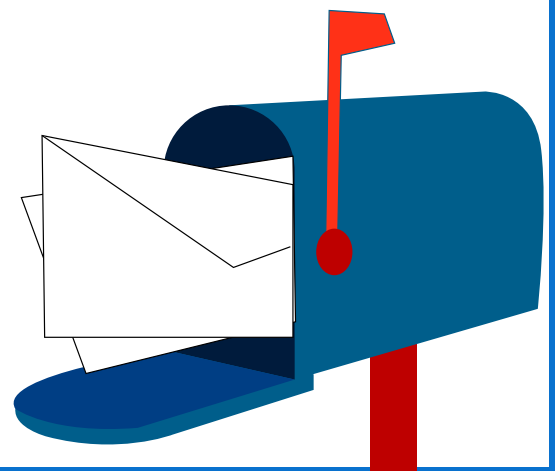

In California, voter ID is not required.

Vote by Mail

Voters are sent a vote-by-mail ballot, which should be sent no later than 29 days prior to election day. No postage needed! You may mail the ballot to your county elections official or return it to a Vote by Mail ballot drop box or at any vote center.
